

SEEN, HEARD AND TOLD

By W. W. WHITAKER
When he feels like it.

Moderate to heavy showers have fallen in this area the past few days with day time temperatures in the 80s. Good cotton weather. As the editor would say, if he was on the job: God Almighty cannot please a farmer it is either too dry or to wet.

Kenneth Toler, in Sundays C. A. went right down the line for reforms in our state governmental framework suggesting methods of improvement.

If we could get one of our candidates for Governor to say he is in favor of revising our antiquated State Constitution, eliminating the waste of money in county court houses and giving Mississippi a sane liquor law; and, the citizens be thoroughly informed on the virtues of such a change, we, in Mississippi, would be making progress.

Ex-president Herbert Hoover is trying to save billions for the national government, so why not try to save millions here in Mississippi??

The county and state government, just as all government in a democracy, can be what the people want it to be and they can get it if they will make their wishes clearly known to the Legislature. We do not look to our "out-dated" Constitution for power to act. We look to the legislature and the legislature looks to the voter. The Miss. Economic Council has a good supply of information on the waste in state and county, so ignorance of our plight is no excuse.

Personally, I look for Mary Cain, a very courageous candidate for governor, to be the only candidate to speak out for drastic reforms, and if you heard her 4 years ago, you too will know that Mary, at least, knows the score and is not playing politics.

See where Clayton Carpenter will be county campaign manager for J. P. Coleman and is having an organization meeting at City Hall tonight (Friday, May 27) at 7:30.

Thanks to Raymond Collins for a piece of the 40 pound cat fish he caught.

That reminds me, fish like guests, should be thrown out the second day.

I love my friends, but right now I don't like company. Makes me too nervous.

My VFW friends, also Birney Ines of Columbus and Monroe Looney and wife sent me some pretty flowers when I was in the hospital. Thanks Julia Talbert continues to be mighty good to me. We, Mabel and I, think a lot of Julia. Julia has been a wonderful daughter to her mother, "Miss" Rosa, who makes her home with the Talberts on College St.

The editor wishes again to thank Lewis Marascualco and wife for fruit and cigarettes and thank Gertrude & Jim Keeton (my old war buddy) for a pile and crapple that Gertrude caught.

Thanks to Ethel George for that cake. I'm reminded that "only God can grow a tree", and am tempted to say Ethel makes the best cakes, but I know there's lots of good cake makers in Grenada.

We extended to reproduce the article on Mississippi's ridiculous liquor laws that appeared in The State Times last Sunday, this week, but we will have to wait until next week.

The only new local candidate this week to announce with us is Jessie P. Lott of Holcomb, who wants to be constable in Beat Five.

John "Buddy" Little one of "Miss" Ora's fine boys, is a candidate for Constable of Beat Five.

Mr. Whitaker's condition is still serious. He wants to thank, again, those who have been so good to him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. Andrew Whitaker and daughters, Andrea and Shirley attended the "Miss Batesville Contest" in Batesville on Thursday night to see their granddaughter and niece, Billie Ann Bailey, in the dancing program. Billie Ann returned home with her grandparents for a visit through Sunday.

Misses Mary and Martha Strahan of Starkville visited Mrs. Jack Sanderson here Sunday thru Wednesday.

Mrs. McCorkle's Useful Career Told In Pascagoula Paper

The GCW is proud to reproduce the following article concerning one of Grenada's most active citizens, Mrs. S. K. McCorkle. The article from the Pascagoula paper, follows:

Out of a life of a diversity of interests and pursuits, work with children has emerged as the most satisfying and delightful for Mrs. Sam K. McCorkle, kindergarten teacher at St. John's Episcopal Church in this is executive secretary of education.

Mrs. McCorkle started out as a first grade teacher the year she got out of college, but after five years she changed her occupation and a lot of water went under the bridge before she returned to teaching the sucker and bubble gum set.

One day a call came from Mississippi State College saying there was a shortage of home demonstration agents and asking me to take a job. I'd never thought of being a home agent but the principal of my school phoned and accepted for me. He said, Don't ever stay in the four walls of a school room when you can get out and get some community service.

In 1924 she and Mr. Sam McCorkle, who died a year ago, were married and four daughters were born during the years she didn't work. The depression changed the picture, though, and she later went back to work with Emergency Relief Administration.

Because of her experience she was put with the far insecurity division as home management supervisor which helped build up her time with the agriculture department to over 29 years so that she is eligible for retirement benefits when she reaches a certain age.

Keeping pace with her paid duties were her activities as a club woman. "I'd be ashamed to tell you how many clubs I belonged to," she said. She has served as state president of the American Legion auxiliary, state chairman of the Eastern Star home fund which take care of the Eastern Star indigent in their own communities, and is now first vice president of the state Parliament organization, national chair man of the by-laws and constitution committee of the 40 and 8, state chairman of a similar American Legion auxiliary committee, and a member of State Social Workers, Eastern Star, National Parliamentarians and Business and Professional Women. She was an organizer of Mississippi Woman's Cabinet of Public Affairs and has been chairman of the citizenship division for three years.

She is particularly proud of having organized service 40 and 8 salons in Mississippi and chapters of the Society for Crippled Children in 76 of the state's 82 counties.

She got an early start in club work. When she was five or six years old she became a member of a library club organized by her retired professor father in Madison. The club met on Saturday night, she remembers, and was primarily to keep the youth of the town off the streets.

Her next venture was the Tomato Club. She worked hard with her tomatoes and the first of what were to become many prizes was won. She came by that prize winning naturally, because she has some of the very first awards given at the Mississippi State Fair, begun about 1902, which were won by her mother.

All these years she was sandwiching particularly crippled children in whom she had become interested through her husband. She taught handicraft in crippled Episcopal camps, especially at Camp Bratton Green.

This is the first she ever conducted a kindergarten and she loves it.

"You do a lot of good and help to create beauty in home demonstration work. Politics is interesting but when you work with children you mold their character, you are doing some

must have something that folks just won't do without!

TWO months ago, in the public print, we said that this looks like Buick's biggest year—and we weren't fooling.

But what has happened—and continues to happen—is almost beyond belief.

People buy up these stunning new Buicks practically as fast as we get them from the factory. Buick production—already revised upward several times—keeps forging ahead to new highs every month to meet the mounting demand.

And Buick sales keep soaring higher and higher and higher—outstripping by far the phenomenal success of last year—the success that moved Buick into the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

What is it about the '55 Buicks that folks by the hundreds of thousands just won't do without? It's many things.

It's styling that's boldly distinctive and fresh as tomorrow. It's beauty of line and beauty of interior décor. It's a ride that's level, firm and steady. It's a new sweetness of handling. It's great power—walloping new V8 power of record might.

But above all, it's a new kind of performance, from a new kind of automatic transmission that was born of flight thinking.

It's Variable Pitch Dynaflo®—engineered from the principle of the modern plane's switch-pitch propeller—and what it brings you in the way of pure thrill, mere words can't describe.

Just you drop in on us this very week and try it. That way you can see what a terrific automobile—and a terrific buy—the hottest-selling Buick of all time really is.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Gulf's Goodman,
State Oil Leader,
Retires at Houston

J. T. GOODMAN

J. T. GOODMAN, Miss. (Special), a well-known leader in the oil industry, known in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, retires this month after 18 years of active service with the Gulf Oil Corporation and the Gulf Refining Company.

Formerly head of the Gulf Production division in Shreveport, La., for many years coordinated the company's drilling and production operations in Mississippi. Col. Goodman has worked out of Gulf's Houston headquarters for the past 18 months.

In addition to his position as Divisional Landman, J. T. Goodman represented the Gulf organization in many oil industry and civic enterprises. He helped to organize the Mississippi-Alabama Division of the Mid Continent Oil and Gas Association at Jackson in 1944, and for many years served as a director of the association's Louisiana-Arkansas Division.

Goodman earned his colonelcy during the first World War when he commanded the 141st Regiment, 36th Infantry Division. He joined Gulf's Scouting and Leasing Department shortly after his discharge from military service in 1919.

Col. Goodman is a veteran of many oil "booms." When the first great East Texas Oil Field was discovered, Goodman and an associate acquired for Gulf leases on thousands of acres simply by giving their word or pencilling in an area on a map. Farmers and other landowners soon learned that agreements thus arrived at with Col. Joe Goodman could be counted on, even though it might take weeks to complete the legal papers involved.

But more important than this is the deep-down dependability engineered into every unseen part and feature of this great Dodge!

BALLARD-SIMPSON WEDDING SUNDAY AFTERNOON

At three o'clock, Sunday afternoon May 22, Miss Jean Simpson became the bride of Mr. Joe Ballard, son of Mooreville and the late Mrs. C. C. Ballard Sr. of Mooreville and the late Mr. Ballard.

The formal church rites were solemnized at First Baptist Church, Grenada, with the Reverend Felix Sutphin officiating at the double ring ceremony. Nuptial music was played by Mrs. John Griffith Hardy, organist with Miss Willie Frances Coleman, vocalist. Selections included "Through the Years", "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Simpson, lovely in a pale blue crystal wedding gown, was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Houston Allen Sheffall of West Point, Miss. The gown featured a drop-shoulder neckline with semi-shawl collar of white lace. Her mitts and hat were also of white lace and she carried a white orchid atop a white Bible. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls with matching ear rings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Vows of marriage were exchanged before an elaborate decorative arrangement of gladioli and ferns. Miss Joyce Simpson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Simpson, of Jackson, a student at Blue Mountain College, was pretty in a dress of pale pink crystal style identical to the bride's gown.

Hauling Costs and Your Family Budget

• Every item in your family budget reflects the truth you see pictured above. Transportation enters into the cost of everything you buy.

Intercity truckers get an average of about 6 cents for moving a ton of freight one mile. The Illinois Central averages less than 1½ cents.

Trucks carry mostly freight for which they can charge high rates. Railroads carry everything, including bulk and raw materials on which rates are low.

There are also differences in manpower, fuel and equipment. A freight train rolling on steel rails remains the most economical way yet devised to move quantities of materials and goods from one place to another. Only railroads can haul everything for everyone so inexpensively.

Last year the Illinois Central again put more than $20 million into improvement of equipment and property. We have done this every year for a long time. It's one of the ways we keep everlastingly at the job of providing you and all the people of Mid-America with economical transportation.

Resources Of God

Lesson for May 29, 1955

A CRIPPLED American carrier after the battle of Leyte was zig-zagging its way to what looked like certain death. Faster Japanese craft were after it, their shots were coming closer. The only hope any one on board could have was that by shifting course and speeding again and again, they might be able to put off the inevitable end. Finally in mid-afternoon, just when drowning seemed closer than ever, for some reason the Americans never understood, the enemy ships gave up the chase and pulled away. The chaplain gathered the men on deck and there read the 124th Psalm (our devotional reading for the week) as if it had been written for the occasion: "If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us, then they would have swallowed us up quick... then the waters had overwhelmed us."

Dr. Foreman

The home pictured last week was that of Mr. J. D. Wilkins, located in Montgomery County, 1/2 mile north of Duck Hill, and is named "The Pines." This home place has 100 acres with approximately 600 acres in other parts of the county.

The Resources Of God

God (said Napoleon) is on the side with the largest battalions. Napoleon was not acquainted with God or he would hardly have said that. There have been too many occasions when the biggest battalions, the best military material (sic), the ablest generalship, did not turn the trick. God has sometimes appeared to be on the side of very small battalions. Sometimes it's a kind of mystery how it's done. But history carries the record. There was the time when the Hebrew slaves left Egypt in spite of the best army in the world. There was the time described in the Bible reading this week, when the God-fearing King Hezekiah and his people—a much smaller little country than many another that had fallen to defeat by mighty Assyria,—was saved by a miracle. There was the time later in Hebrew history (between the Old and the New Testaments) when the little army of the Maccabees stood off the great armies of the Seleucid kings; the astonishing day when the "invincible" Armada, the enormous naval expedition of Spain, which could never have been beaten by English arms at that time, was smashed by a hurricane on the rocky coasts of the islands the Spaniards intended to enslave. Say what you please, some victories cannot be explained unless you can see "God within the shadows, keeping watch above his own."

Victories of the Spirit

There have been victories of the spirit, too, which can hardly be explained unless you can see God in the picture. When John Woolman was born, slavery was taken for granted everywhere in the civilized world. You would not have thought Mr. Woolman could make a dent in so well-established a custom. He had no money, no prestige, not much education. But the Lord laid on his soul a burden, and he went from one Quaker meeting to another, sharing his burden of concern for slaves; and out of his one-man crusade came the Quaker opposition to slavery and the gradual awakening of the Christian conscience everywhere. So, nearer our times, when Walter Rauschenbusch was a boy, religion was generally supposed to have to do only with a man's soul, not with his business or his politics or anything outside his church and home. Rauschenbusch became a new sort of prophet—attacked, of course, as prophets are; but what seemed to be heresy in his day is preached today in all churches, that the Christian religion is concerned with every side and every interest and relationship of life, public and private too.

Not the Lazy

It is a serious mistake to suppose that God always rewards the weak, or that he will do for us what we are expected to do ourselves. The story of Hezekiah brings this out. He felt, and the whole country felt, that God had saved them in their time of need; and this was true. But it should be noted that Hezekiah, faced with invasion, took intelligent (and expensive) measures for defense. He secured a reliable water supply for use in case of siege, he diverted water away from the places where the besieging army was sure to be. He built up the army, he manufactured new equipment. If he had radar screens he would have used them.

"Farm of the Week" - Last Week

—This Series Sponsored by Jitney-Jungle, Grenada.

The home pictured last week was that of Mr. J. D. Wilkins, located in Montgomery County, 1/2 mile north of Duck Hill, and is named "The Pines." This home place has 100 acres with approximately 600 acres in other parts of the county.

The house was built in 1870 by the present owners father and three generations have resided there. Mr. Wilkins was born in this house.

His wife, the former Miss Douglass Fox, died sometime ago, and their daughter, Miss Lona May Wilkins, makes her home part-time with her father, and at Greenwood with her aunt, Mrs. Ben Terry.

Mr. Wilkin's hobby is working with his cattle. He has 300 head of Black Angus, which are his favorite breed. He grazes them on cover crops and feed silage. He is a Presbyterian, belongs to the Farm Bureau and he has cotton and cover crops on his farm.

Ellett Lawrence of Greenwood comes over to Grenada about twice a week to see his "Brother" Mr. Whitaker.

Mrs. McCorkle is known as a dedicated person to her friends and associates. "Nothing is too much trouble for her to do for someone," they agree. "And she is a push-over for every kindergarten boy or girl that forgets to bring a little refreshment for the recess period. No telling how many times her hand has gone into her own pocket and she has dashed to the store."

Here's why PONTIAC WINS BUYERS FROM EVERY OTHER MAKE

It's a king-size luxury car—Biggest at its price!

Pontiac is a big, roomy car. Here it is: A car with 122" or 124" wheelbase—longest in its price field, even longer than some models in the top price range—and with true big-car stability to match. Luxury is in key. For quality of fabrics, conveniences and appointments, Pontiac compares with the costliest cars.

It's America's topmost value—Greatest buy of any year!

Pontiac is selling at the fastest rate of all time for this simple reason: America agrees—when you can get the size, power, beauty and luxury you want at Pontiac's easy price, that's the place to put your money. Come in and get all the facts.

It's a 200-horsepower performer—Most powerful at its price!

As the only car with the Strato-Streak V-8, Pontiac has a big performance advantage. This newest and most efficient V-8 enables Pontiac to provide more power than any car has ever delivered at Pontiac's price—a full 200 horsepower with the four-barrel carburetor, an extra cost option; 180 H.P. is standard.

It's a future-fashioned beauty—Most distinctive at any price!

Style-conscious motorists turn to Pontiac for true mode-of-tomorrow design, beautifully different from any other car on the road. Exclusive Vogue Two-Tone styling. Twin-Streaked hood and low, rakish lines give you a car that you know will remain a prideful possession for many years to come.

You can buy a big, 200-horsepower Strato-Streak V-8 Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and for much less than stripped economy models of higher-priced makes—none of which equal Pontiac in combined power, size and future-fashioned beauty.

CAN YOU SEE, STEER, STOP SAFELY? CHECK YOUR CAR—CHECK ACCIDENTS.
